

creative session

Your photography session is priced at £100 and this is required as a booking fee in advance to secure and book a session.

This investment includes the following:

- One photography session at my natural light studio in East Kilbride

An online preview gallery for 7 days allowing you to order from the comfort of your home

Clients are typically presented with a gallery of approximately 25-35 beautifully edited images.

The creative session fee is paid in advance and this will secure your chosen date. It is important to note that this is non-refundable should you cancel, but it is transferable to the next available date in the event you wish to amend your booking {conditions apply}

Bookings cannot be transferred to another type of session as this does count as a cancellation.
